Matthew 13:1-9; 18-23

Jesus speaks a parable, heard both by the crowds and to His disciples. What we learn in the intervening verses of these two paragraphs, is that Jesus is speaking in parables because He is wanting to make an Old Testament mystery evident to His followers.

A parable is an earthly story with a heavenly meaning.

Like all stories, there are characters within that story. The characters here are:

Let's look at them individually.
